Thank you to our Business Members

Benefits of Business Membership

Your membership dues are a valuable resource. The Friends will put your dollars to work, and publicly recognize the support received from your organization in the following ways:

-  Listing on Friends Facebook page
-  Inclusion on the RML Library website
-  Certificate of support to display at your business
-  Inclusion in newspaper advertising for annual National Library Week
-  Inclusion on Individual & Business Membership Forms
-  Recognition on the Santa's Visit Coloring page annually
-  Bookmarks with your logo distributed at each SHP session

Our Goal

The Friends are dedicated to providing enrichment, advocacy and support to the Hudson library community by increasing awareness of the Library and stimulating the expanded use of the Library's resources and services.

The Friends group has provided support to the Library community since 1979. The history of the Friends is accessible on the RML webpage www.rogerslibrary.org

Where your membership dollar goes

 Funds the Leonard A. Smith Memorial Scholarship Program which provides annual scholarships to Hudson youth graduating from high schools.

 Co-sponsors a variety of concerts, author forums, Humanities Council and other historical presentations

 Supports Library needs and equipment over and above the annual budget including purchase of 3-D printer, telescope, museum passes, movie licenses, children's early learning equipment, art display systems and special Children's Room activities.

 Provides photos with Santa Claus during his annual Holiday visit

 Subsidizes prizes for annual poetry contests and summer reading programs

 Provides recognition for Library staff during National Library Week annually

 Makes gently-pre-owned books and electronic media available to the community through monthly Second Hand Book sessions and donations to the Benson Park's Little Free Library
