SPECIAL SEPTEMBER EVENTS!

DCU Concert:

Sarah Jane Nelson

Saturday, Sept. 14

2pm

Free concert for the whole family!

Sarah Jane Nelson is a multi-instrumentalist and vocalist who has been playing traditional music for folk festivals, New England contra dances, and other regional events for over a decade. She is an old-time fiddler, guitarist and vocalist makes frequent appearances at libraries across New England where she discusses her biography project and shares her love of old songs and tunes. No registration necessary.

Library Sign-Up Month September is Library Sign-Up Month!

From borrowing movies, museum passes, or the newest tech gadgets to enjoying yoga classes, makerspaces, or cooking events, a library card to the George H. and Ella M. Rodgers Memorial Library offers access to a number of fun and educational activities!

Anyone who registers for a Rodgers Memorial Library card in September will receive a gift at the circulation desk and will be entered into a raffle for a Barnes and Noble gift card.

The Rodgers Library is competing with libraries in New Hampshire for the highest percentage of new cardholders in September. Show your Hudson pride, help us win The Granite State Library Card Challenge by getting your library card this month.

For more information, visit our website at rodgerslibrary.org, give us a call at 603-886-6030 or inquire at the Circulation desk.

Special Event

The World of Jane Austen's Sense and Sensibility

Saturday, Sept. 28

1pm

Join us for a discussion on Jane Austen's first published work: "Sense and Sensibility." Indulge in a catered British tea - complete with tea, fine china, sandwiches and cakes - and learn about the author and her life, the Georgian era in which she lived, themes and characters, and why Austen's books remain relevant to this day. The event ends with scenes from the play "Sense and Sensibility," performed by member actors of the Nashua Theatre Guild, who will be performing the play in full the weekend of October 11. Attendees will receive a special discount on tickets to see the full play the weekend of October 11.

Casual dress is fine, but Regency attire and/or Sunday hat/bonnet encouraged!

Registration required.

Due to catering requirements, registration is very limited, so sign up early. Registration opens Monday, September 9.
