The Best Of 2007

It is that time of the year again when the best of 2007 comes out. Here are three for the books:

Village Voice writers pick their favorite 20 books of the year published December 4th, 2007):

<http://www.villagevoice.com/books/0749.asdf.78504.10.html/1>

The Publisher's Weekly list which came out in November :

<http://www.publishersweekly.com/article/CA6496987.html>

Library Journal :

<http://www.libraryjournal.com/article/CA6510658.html>

Best of... lists seem to fly fast and furious as the old year wanes, but I always found the good ones to be a helpful checklist to make sure the best of the year's vintage are in our collection. They can also provide thought-provoking titles for book discussion groups.

REFERENCE & INFORMATION DEPARTMENT

by Gayle St. Cyr

Database Of The Month

The library has recently acquired NewspaperARCHIVE.com. This online database gives public libraries access to tens of millions of newspaper pages. Easy to use, this research tool for primary sources provides convenient access to digitized newspapers dating back to the 1700s. You can use the archive to view, save and print full-page articles from around the world. The Nashua Telegraph coverage runs from the 1940s to 1977. The database is only available onsite at the library. Remote access is unavailable at this time. For more information call the main room at 886-6030, extension 21.

Reference Resources Morningstar & Value Line

The library has a subscription to Morningstar Mutual Funds to assist patrons with their financial planning. Morningstar is the premier source of unbiased information and one of the most-trusted and frequently cited sources of independent mutual funds. You will find current and historical quotes for over 90,000 investments and in-depth analysis of nearly 40,000 mutual funds and stocks.

The library also has a subscription to Value Line Investment Survey, an invaluable resource for investors. A weekly reporting service, it provides reports, ratings and analysis for major industries and approximately 1,700 stocks. Included are earnings and dividends, and stock price projections. The Value Line Small and Mid-Cap edition reports provide detailed descriptions and balance sheets of 1,800 stocks not included in the regular edition. Both subscriptions are located in the reference area of the main room.

Notary Service

Did you know that the library offers free notary service? There
