Digital Bookmobile Visit

Thursday, August 29 12PM - 5:30PM

The Overdrive Digital Bookmobile will be in the area at the end of the month, and will be stopping by the Alvirne High School parking lot for a day of interactive demonstrations. Drop in and have a look at the latest features of the NH Downloadable books consortium.

The Digital Bookmobile is a one-of-a-kind traveling exhibit: a high-tech update of the traditional bookmobile housed inside a 74-foot, 18-wheel tractor trailer. Inside, visitors can check out the latest in eBook, audiobook and streaming video technology.

New: Request Rooms Online

Place room requests from the comfort of home, 24/7!

Now, in addition to requesting the reservation of meeting space at the library in person and by phone, requests can be made online. Rooms can be booked a maximum of 3 months in advance, and a request is not a guarantee of the space -- staff will review all requests as before, and let you know when they are officially booked.

New groups will still need to fill out the paper form and make a refundable deposit before bookings are finalized. Room use policies apply.

The large community room may be requested online. We have also begun allowing advanced booking on one of the study rooms (max occupancy 8) for smaller groups.

New Fall Programs for Teens

Starting Wednesday, September 4!

With the new school year comes a new slate of programs for teens.

Wednesdays, 2:30PM - 5PM

tt@yl - Teen Takeover At Your Library

Teens can come hangout and use the community room for work or fun. Snacks and closed beverages are allowed. A librarian will be available to assist with technical troubles and answer questions.

Tuesday, September 10, 4PM - 5PM

Snack Chat

This is a teen discussion and hangout group where snacks will be provided. Each person brings something to share (a book, movie, video game, music, tv show, etc.) that matches the theme of the month. September's theme is: Your Favorite Thing Ever!

Tuesday, September 17, 4PM - 5PM

Animanga Club

Teens who are fans of anime and manga can come to watch and discuss their favorites. Every month is a new activity! This month's activity is color a manga. We'll be watching a couple episodes of Trigun and coloring manga like a coloring book. Bring your own manga to color, or color one that we provide for you.

Ongoing

Take a book, Leave a book Display

There is a display in the teen area for books recommended by other teens.

Anyone can recommend a book by placing an orange bookmark inside of it and then returning it to the desk. Orange bookmarks are located on the top shelf of the display or at the circulation desk, so put one in when you return a book you liked!

Avoiding the Food Devils

Tuesday, September 10, 7PM

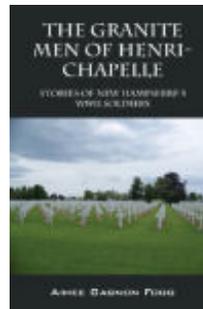

"You are what you eat". Everyone's heard the saying before. Well, guess what? It's true! What you put in your body creates your cells, so you literally become your food. Are there any little demons sneaking around in your diet? Health and fitness coach Melissa Koerner of friendlyourbody.com presents a workshop to help you discover the major food 'devils' hiding in your cupboards and refrigerator, and how to avoid the havoc they can wreak on your health by becoming a savvy shopper. Pre-registration requested. Register online or call 886-6030.

Author Visit: The Granite Men of Henri-Chapelle

Friday, September 13, 1:30PM

NH author Aimee Fogg's journey to discover what happened to her uncle who perished while fighting in Europe during World War II became a mission to tell the stories of all 38 New Hampshire men who are buried at the Henri-Chapelle cemetery in Belgium. She will discuss the research she undertook to tell the stories of these men who gave their lives for our country so long ago.

This visit is in conjunction with the resumption of Genealogy Club, which meets monthly on the second Friday of each month at 1:30PM. Everyone is welcome.

Eighteen Things 18 Year Olds and Their Parents Need to Know

Tuesday, September 24, 7PM

Turning 18 is a major milestone -- and a game changer. Registering to vote is easy, but what about budgeting for college? Getting a tattoo may be a rite of passage, but how do you work with your doctor on your own? And how do parents make a smooth transition from being in charge to being a coach? Eighteen year olds (plus or minus a few years) and their parents are invited to explore the financial, medical, legal and relationship challenges that are part of the journey to adulthood today.

Panelists include:

- Jennifer Starr, Ph.D - an advocate for financial literacy and business and economics teacher
- Pam Richardson - an experienced social worker and business owner, currently the circulation coordinator at Rivier University
- Maura Loftus, attorney - member of the NH Bar association and National Academy of Elder Law Attorneys
- Christine Sullivan, DNP - a pediatric nurse practitioner and member of the nursing faculty at Rivier.

Create a Vision Board

Monday, September 30, 7:00PM

Join Diane MacKinnon, Master Life Coach, at a hands on session to create a Vision Board. A vision board is a collage using images and/or words to express the people, places, events and things that you wish to manifest in your life. Spend a couple of hours relaxing your logical, thinking mind and playing with images and colors. You will come away with a map to your best life. All supplies will be provided, but if you have a few favorite magazines you don't mind cutting up, bring them along!

Pre-registration requested. Register online or call 886-6030. There will be a $5 materials fee for this program.

Hills 3rd Thursday: Finding Your Ancestors

Thursday, September 19, 6PM

This month's 3rd Thursday program is presented by Rich Guillmette, long time Hudson resident, facilitator at the RISE Program at Rivier University since 2007, and a regular volunteer at the American-Canadian Genealogy Center in Manchester. Rich is also a frequent presenter at the library's Genealogy Club meetings.

The Trustees of the Rodgers Memorial Library present monthly open house programs at the historic Hills Memorial Library building, 18 Library St.
