Meet Eleanor Roosevelt

Wednesday, Apr 8, 2:30PM

First Lady Eleanor Roosevelt was a leader and a revolutionary – a champion to the powerless – and her story is not over. Elena Dodd's living history of Mrs. Roosevelt is an intimate and informative depiction of the extraordinary life of an extraordinary woman. This program offers a frank and often humorous look at the struggles and personal fulfillment of a shy young woman who metamorphosed into a strong voice for social justice and universal human rights while witnessing the tumultuous events of her day.

This program is made possible by a grant from the NH Humanities Council.

Genealogy Club: Why Story Matters? Memoir Writing

Friday, April 10, 1:30PM

Thatcher Freund will be the guest speaker at this month's genealogy club meeting. A journalist and memoir writer, Thatcher will talk about the importance of stories in our lives both to ourselves and to the culture we live in, and why it matters so much that we preserve them.

Thatcher is a graduate of Stanford University (B.A., History) and the Columbia School of Journalism and has lived in New England off and on for the last twenty years. His published work includes the book Objects of Desire: The Lives of Antiques and Those Who Pursue Them, which follows the lives of three pieces of American furniture from their creation in the 18th century to their sales at Sotheby's some 250 years later. Besides his speaking engagements, Thatcher helps people to write their own memoirs and teaches workshops on memoir writing.
