Gingerbread House Contest

Drop-off: Thursday, December 1, 9AM-9PM OR

Drop-off: Friday, December 2, 9AM-5PM

The children's room at the library will be turning into a gingerbread village this December! We're looking for gingerbread houses for the display. There will be a contest for the favorite house in several categories: professional bakers, adults, families, and kids are all invited to participate.

Houses can be constructed of any material, but must be completely decorated with edible materials. The base of the house cannot be more than 24"x24". After dropping off the house at one of the designated times, there will be a reception and prize ceremony on Thursday, December 15, 6:30PM-7:30PM.

New Museum Pass: SEE Science Center

Reserve this pass and many others!

Visit the SEE Science Center in Manchester for free with this new museum pass offered by the library. The center is geared for visitors age 1 through adult. The SEE is a fun and exciting science discovery center with more than 90 hands on exhibits demonstrating basic principles of science in a fun and entertaining way. It is also the home of the LEGO Millyard Project, a permanent exhibition built with 3 million LEGO bricks!

This pass and all others can be reserved by calling 886-6030 or online with your library card and PIN. For most museums we have only one pass available per day, so make reservations early for upcoming school vacations!

Inclement Weather Policy

On days when Hudson schools are closed, all library programming is automatically cancelled. Please call in advance to be certain of other programs. Library closings will be sent to WMUR and other local outlets.
