

Free Tax Help

Every Wednesday, February 1 - April 11, 1:00PM-5:00PM

Volunteers from the AARP will be at the library to help senior citizens and low to moderate income taxpayers with their tax returns. Tax assistance volunteers cannot help prepare Schedule C over $10,000 in expenses, Schedule E, complicated/lengthy Schedule D forms without the proper paperwork, or other specialized forms. Call the library at 886-6030 to make an appointment; walk-ins welcome (though you may need to wait.)

G. Philip Rodgers Memorial Day

Saturday, March 10, All Day

The Library Trustees have designated March 2012 to remember G. Philip Rodgers for his part in the selfless gift of the George H. and Ella M. Rodgers Memorial Library.

A celebration will take place in Phil's honor on March 10th, the anniversary of his death. Bookmarks of his favorite poem, Rudyard Kipling's If will be available decorated with colored carnations. In an effort to embrace the thought process of "giving back" to the youth and adult residents of the town, a number of books will be added to the library collection with memorial book plates marking the occasion.

Please join us in remembering Phil at this special time by stopping by and jotting down your thoughts in the memory book and appreciating this wonderful community gathering place.

Native American Ancestry and Culture

Genealogy Club: Friday, March 9, 1:30PM

This month's genealogy club meeting will feature guest speaker Alfred "Chief" Johnson, who will give a presentation on Native American culture, life on a reservation, and his own family history. Born in Oklahoma, Mr. Johnson is a full-blooded Cherokee who was educated in Federal Indian Schools. A teacher noticed his gift as an artist and helped him to continue on to art school. As a well-known landscape artist, he has won awards for his illustrations, working first for Raytheon Co. and then for Sanders Associates in Nashua. He will be discussing his family genealogy as well as bringing some of his award-winning paintings and carvings.

Beading Group: Zulu Flowerette Chain Bracelet

Saturday, March 24, 11AM - 3PM

Beaders of all experience levels are invited to the new Beading group which will be meeting at the library the 4th Saturday of every month. Some meetings will be drop-in sessions where people bring their own projects and can share tips and techniques with other beading enthusiasts, while other meetings will be classes devoted to specific projects which will be taught by experienced beaders. For classes, people will need to register in advance and there may be a materials fee for project kits.

March's meeting is a project: "Zulu Flowerette Chain Bracelets". There is a $20 materials fee for this class, which must be paid in advance. Payment and registration can be done online or stop by the Reference desk to sign up and pay. In addition, beaders will also need to bring a beading mat and at least one big eyed or beading needle.
