

InterLibrary Loan Van Service

A recent legislative action will require the state library to reduce the number of vans providing Interlibrary service in the state of NH, even though this service is funded by a federal grant. A list of Frequently Asked Questions about the situation is available online and at the library. If this service is important to you, please think about joining the petition to reconsider.

Tuesday, October 25, 7PM: Bob Korkuc

Join local Amherst author Bob Korkuc as he shares the compelling story of his seven-year quest to learn the truth surrounding the events that led to his uncle's death, burial and reburial during WWII. A gunner on a B-17 Flying Fortress, Tony Korkuc was lost on a bombing mission over Germany, and his family believed that his body was never recovered. But when Bob learned in 1995 that he was actually buried in Arlington National Cemetery, he set out to unravel the mystery of just what happened over 50 years ago. His story blends wartime drama with a primer on historical research. Copies of the book Finding a Fallen Hero: The Death of a Ball Turret Gunner will be available for purchase and signing.
