Concert: A Walk Through the Delta

Wednesday, November 5, 3PM

Wednesday, November 5, 7PM

The library will be hosting two concerts by NH Blues Challenger winner "Poor Howard" Stith. Poor Howard has been performing 12-string barrelhouse blues for over forty years. He has performed across the US, Europe, and Japan. His expertise on the 12-string guitar, his knowledge of early blues, and his warm sense of humor have won him fans wherever he travels. "A Walk Through the Delta" is both educational and entertaining, mixing music and folk humor and showing how this distinctly American music has gained international popularity. This is sure to be a concert to remember.

Quilt Exhibit: Terry Griffin

Quilts on display during November

November's exhibit is a collection of quilts made by one of the library's own Drop-in Stitchers Group, Terry Griffin. Stop by and have a look.

Annual Gingerbread House Contest

Houses Due December 5
