Summer Hours Ending

Our standard operating hours have resumed as of Tuesday, September 2nd.

Mon - Thu: 9AM - 9PM

Fri: 9AM - 6PM

Sat: 9AM - 5PM

Sun: Closed

Photography Exhibit: Jill Mudge and Charles Walla

Reception: Wednesday, September 3, 6:30PM

Photos on display during September

Jill Mudge's exhibit "Horses of the West" is part of a new body of work she is currently pursuing: "Wild Horses of America". Mudge studied photography at the Minneapolis College of Art and Design. She considers herself a fine arts photographer and enjoys taking photos of landscapes, nature, wildlife and horses.

Charles Walla is displaying "Scenes of Greece". Upon retiring from a 40 year career in technology, Walla reinitiated his passion for photography. He has been studying his art form at the New Hampshire Institute of Art.

Create Goals with Soul

Tuesday, September 9, 7PM

Join Master Certified Life Coach Diane MacKinnon, MD for a program exploring how you can set goals that feel good and are within your control to achieve. In this presentation, you'll explore different ways to set goals that feel good from start to finish. You'll be led in some exercises together and you'll leave with a path toward at least one major goal that feels not only joyful, but doable!

Please pre-register online or by calling 886-6030.

Walking Tour of Genealogy Resources

Friday, September 12, 1:30PM

This month's meeting of the library's genealogy club will be a tour of the library's genealogical resources and holdings. A special part of the tour will be visiting the Bernard Manor Archives Room in the basement of the library.

All are welcome - we have a great mix of experts and new researchers at our meetings!

Concert: Halfway to St. Patrick's Day

Wednesday, September 17, 7PM

Irish Balladeer Paul Carroll grew up in Dublin and later emigrated to Australia, where he was a founding member of that nation's premiere Celtic band, Poteen. He has made his home in NH for over a quarter century and is currently bringing his music to local audiences with a program he calls "Raised on Songs and Stories".

Family Game Night

Monday, September 29, 5:30PM

Our new program for all ages: join us for a night of board and card game fun. Stop by for a few minutes or stay the whole evening. The library will supply Scrabble, Monopoly, Chess, Checkers, Life, and many more. Card players are also welcome to come play classic card games such as Bridge or Cribbage. Games from home are also welcome.

Chromebooks Now Available

RML Cardholders can now surf the web from anywhere in the library with our new Chromebooks. Sign out a Chromebook for in-library use at the Reference desk and find a quiet corner, a comfy chair, or bring it to the Children's Room and use it while your children are having fun at our programs or on the kids' computers. Chromebooks also have some apps available, and you can save files to a USB drive.

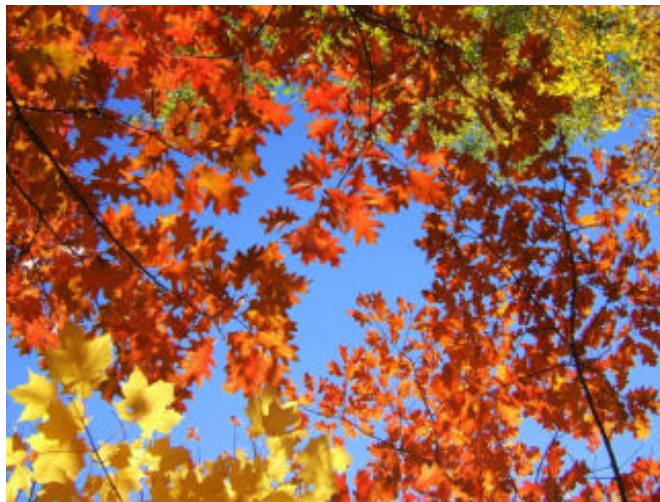

Chromebooks do not have Microsoft Office products and cannot be used for printing.
